Abuja bifacial solar panels

Overview

Are bifacial solar panels a good idea in India?

However, the good news is that India is steadily shifting towards bifacial technology since the efficiency of these modern-day panels is very high. Unlike monofacial solar panels, the bifacial panels are double-sided. It means that the solar cells are fitted on both sides of the panels. Therefore, this solar panel can absorb energy from both sides.

What is a bifacial solar panel?

They can be thus said to be 'monofacial'. As is directly implied in the name, a bifacial solar panel is a solar module that is constructed in such a way to expose both the front and backside of the solar cells to sunlight so as to produce electricity from both sides of the panel.

Are solar panels 'monofacial'?

Traditional solar panel modules have a transparent top side that has an arrangement of solar cells that produce the electricity and a bottom side that is mostly made of an opaque polymer backsheet to which a junction box is attached. They can be thus said to be 'monofacial'.

Are bifacial solar modules a disruptive trend?

Bifacial modules have been around since the 1960's, however it was with the recent development of the Passivated Emitter Rear Cell technology that has significantly increased their efficiencies and expanded their potentials, that they recently became the disruptive trend in the solar module market.
