Overview

Is South Korea a Bess supplier?

South Korea is also a major exporter of batteries and energy storage technologies, with Samsung SDI and LG Energy Solution among significant suppliers of products from cells to complete BESS solutions internationally. According to the newest Basic Plan, the country aims to capture a 30% share of the global BESS market by 2036.

Why is Bess important in South Korea?

The country has been actively promoting the development and deployment of BESS to improve the stability of its grid, manage peak demand, and integrate renewable energy sources into its energy mix. The BESS market in South Korea has been driven by the country's strong manufacturing base in the battery industry.

What drives the Bess market in South Korea?

The BESS market in South Korea has been driven by the country's strong manufacturing base in the battery industry. Major battery manufacturers such as LG Chem and Samsung SDI Co., Ltd. are based in South Korea.

How many MW of Bess will be installed on Jeju Island?

The capacity will be split between 500MW of large-scale BESS on the Korean mainland and 40MW of the technology on Jeju Island, a popular destination for domestic and international tourists.

What is Bess & how does it work?

BESS is designed to store electrical energy when it is plentiful and release it when needed. This can help balance the supply and demand of electricity, particularly during peak demand or when renewable energy sources are intermittent and unavailable. BESS is used in homes, businesses, and utility-scale applications.
