What is Myanmar's Solar power potential?

Myanmar's solar power potential is estimated to total around 35 gigawatts-peak (GWp). "So far, less than 1% has been installed so there is huge solar potential," they highlighted. Very good solar potential exists in the central lowlands of Myanmar, where demand is the highest, they added.

Why is Myanmar a good place to invest in solar energy?

"Low energy access rates, high solar irradiance for most of the year, supply lagging behind the demand, [and the] high cost of electricity generation," are key factors that make Myanmar an attractive destination for solar energy investment and deployment, Richard Harrison, Smart Power Myanmar CEO, told Solar Magazine.

Who commissioned Myanmar's first commercial solar power plant?

State Counselor Aung San Suu Kyi in June 2018 officially commissioned the first, 50-MWdc/40-MWac, phase of Myanmar's inaugural commercial solar power facility, the 220-MWdc/170-MWac, US$297 million Minbu Solar Power Plant.

How much electricity does Myanmar produce?

Myanmar is able to produce between 2.9 gigawatts (GW) and 3.1 GW of electricity, according to media sources. Recent estimates by the World Bank forecast energy consumption in Myanmar would grow at an average 11% rate out to 2030. The World Bank also forecast that peak electricity demand would rise to 8.6 GW by 2025 and 12.6 GW by 2030.

Will Myanmar achieve universal electricity access by 2030?

“Following the lifting of sanctions in 2011, Myanmar launched an ambitious investment program, with both government and private sector participation, to develop its energy infrastructure and provide universal electricity access by 2030,” the World Bank highlighted in its June 2019 Myanmar Economic Monitor.
