Portable power bank for camping in Central Africa

Overview

I've been testing the best power banks for camping in several ways over multiple years. I've taken them on car camping trips, exposing them to sun and wind, with temperatures dropping down into the forties at ni.

Which power bank is best for camping?

SQUIRREL_13077877 If you're planning an extended trip, Anker's PowerCore 337 is one of the best power banks for camping, thanks to its huge 26,800mAh capacity. According to the makers, it can top up your phone more than six times, or recharge tablets at least twice – about enough to last you a week.

Do you need a power bank for camping?

It only takes one dead phone battery to make you realize the importance of a power bank for camping. Whether it's snapping a picture of the local flora and fauna, setting an alarm for your sunrise hike, or pulling up directions for the drive home, it's essential that you have enough juice to last to the end of your trip.

What do car campers use their power bank for?

The vast majority of car campers are using their power bank for just one thing: keeping that phone charged. And even though you're off the grid (at least we hope), free from the YouTube autoplay and Facebook algorithm, you'll probably still need to use your phone for at least a couple of things. Photos. Alarm clock. Offline maps.

Where do car campers store their power bank?

Most car campers will store their power bank in their car, or maybe their tent. But if you anticipate bringing yours along for a hike or having it next to you while cooking up dinner, then the Goal Zero Venture 35 might be the better choice for you.

What is a power bank & how does it work?

This standard classifies the degree of protection provided against intrusion, dust, accidental contact and water. As well as being impact and water-resistant, power banks specifically designed for the great outdoors often have LED lights, so they can be used as torches.

Is the Powertraveller a good power bank?

However, even when used as a standard power bank the Powertraveller performs extremely well. Going off grid?
