Vientiane Development Communication Base Station Inverter Construction

Overview

Where is Vientiane railway station?

Vientiane Railway Station is the main station, and there is also South Vientiane Station which will be connected to the Thai Railway. Vientiane Station is about 17 km outside the city centre, and it took nearly an hour to get into the city during the evening peak hour. I hope a planned BRT is brought forward to serve the station.

Will Vientiane get a new railway?

Out of all of the grandiose projects that have been proposed for Vientiane, who would have thought that a new railway would be the thing that got completed first. The Laos-China Railway began construction in December 2016, and it opened in December 2021.

What is Vientiane Life Center?

Vientiane Life Center is a shopping mall and apartment complex next to Vientiane Center Mall and the World Trade Centre Mall. This row of shopping complexes has turned this street into the premier shopping and entertainment area of Vientiane.

What's happening in Vientiane?

Vientiane has some big projects lined up in order to attract more investment in the capital. Like most cities in the region though, Vientiane was hit hard by the extended international border closure during the pandemic.

What is Amari Vientiane?

Amari Vientiane is an under-construction 15-storey hotel on the Mekong Riverside. Like the Hilton project, the Amari also appeared to be dormant with no workers on site, and then I saw the crane operating on one of the days I was walking by.
