Which mode does the export of photovoltaic modules belong to

Overview

Why did China Export more solar modules in 2021?

The rapidly growing demand overseas bolstered the export of Chinese modules. According to data compiled by InfoLink, China exported 88.8 GW of modules in 2021, a 35.3% increase that is chiefly attributed to major PV markets, such as Europe, Brazil, and India. The chart shows China exporting more modules to the world in 2021 than in 2020.

What is solar photovoltaic (PV)?

Solar photovoltaic (PV), typical renewable energy, has the largest potential to provide a considerable amount of energy from abundant sunshine resources. Thus, many countries have established supportive policies to flourish PV industry. The past 20 years have witnessed the dramatic growth of China's PV production.

Do internal and external forces affect China's solar PV export?

This study examines the impact of both internal and external forces on China's solar PV export during 2007–2016. The results show that the spatial pattern of PV exports is quite different before and after 2011, with export increasingly concentrated in the Yangtze River Delta.

Is China's PV Manufacturing an export-oriented industry?

Moreover, China's PV manufacturing is an export-oriented industry since the export market consumes about 95% of China's total PV production before 2012 and 68% during 2012–2016 (Letcher and Fthenakis, 2018). How China has achieved such a remarkable growth in PV production and export deserves further exploration.

Does trade protectionism impede solar PV trade between China and EU?

On the other hand, solar PV trade between China and the EU is impeded by trade barriers. According to the UN Comtrade database, China's PV products account for 45.0%, 33.3%, and 25.0% of the EU market in 2011, 2013, and 2015 respectively, verifying the effect of trade protectionism.

Why did China's solar PV market fall after 2011?

After 2011, the global market plummeted and trade protectionism depressed China's PV trade (Voituriez and Wang, 2015). As an export-oriented emerging industry, China's solar PV sector is hard to illustrate since its development is always subject to uncertainties caused by external forces.
